BREED THEATER.

The Best Mation Picture Bill of the Season.

One of the best programmes of the season is being put on at the Breed theater for the balance of the week, and the old theater does itself proud in the presentation of it, combining all the best in the field, and thoroughly pleasing the patrons, who know what perfect motion pictures are.

The strong feature picture is entitled His Reformation, and is a stirring story of the wild and woolly west, in which there figures a bold stage robbery. The magnificent scenes that precede the actual holdup are a series precede the actual holdup are a series of superb scenic views, showing a marvelously beautiful section of western landscape, and depicting the tremendous efforts and plans made to successfully carry out this bold plan. The many glimpses of the old stage coach, as it winds its way over the lonely mountain road, are beautiful indeed, and the exquisite little touch of human nature at the finish makes this picture as perfect as is possible. The Biograph feature is one of unusual beauty and the great story carries a strong plot and moral, and is filled with unsurpassed photographic spiendor.

Miss Wolcott sings the tremendously difficult echo song made famous by Jennie Lind, which is in very capable hands as rendered by the popular prima donna of the Breed. This is a very musical number, and one that appeals to all lovers of the high class

The design which has met the approval of the committee, Mr. Woodruff and the directors was submitted by Tiffany & Co. of New York. This tablet is simple and has at the top above the inscription the cross and a sprig of olive signifying victory. The tablet as designed is three feet by two and one-half feet. one-half feet.

Middletown High School Secret

Six students of the Middletown High were suspended for an indefinite

Six students of the Middletown High school were suspended for an indefinite period this week by Superintendent Wheatley and President F. A. Coles of the board of education because they were members of a high school secret society. The society is known as Theta Sigma and there are several chapters in other cities in the state. There is a large membership losally and rooms are maintained in the Mc-Donough block on Main street.

The local board of education put the ban on secret societies in the high school some year ago, prohibiting membership under penalty of suspensien or expulsion. Since the rule was passed there has been more or less trouble with societies that have existed more or less sub rosa. It has been known for some time that there was a chapter of the Theta Sigma fraternity located here, but the fact did not come to the attention of the board until reto the attention of the board until re-

OPEN TROLLEY CARS. Connecticut Company Said to Be Well Supplied at Present Time.

An official statement issued by the New Haven road in response to an inquiry says that it is not certain whether the Connecticut company will place any orders for new trolley equipment for summer uses this year. Usually at this time of the year the company receives from the managers of its various systems estimates on the number of new pars for summer used, and acting on this information the higher officials of the road place an order for new equipment which goes to the cities most in need of new cars.

This winter may prove an exception, to this regular railroad buying rule, however, for, according to this statement, no orders have been placed and it cannot be told now whether any will be placed. In recent years past at this time some heavy contracts for trolley care have been given by the trolley company, and it may be that the trolley lines in Connecticul are now well supplied with rolling stock for summer business.

MIDDLETOWN'S OLDEST WOMAN. Mrs. Emily Bacon Has Outlived All Her Family.

Mrs. Emily Bacon, mother of the late Attorney Clarence E. Bacon, was 91 years old on Friday and is probably entitled to the distinction of being the oldest woman in Middletown. There was no apecial observance of the day, but many of her friends and welch rarebit served to the day, but many of her friends and acquaintances called upon her at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Katherine Bacon, of Washington

On Sunday before last Mrs. Bacon On Sunday before last Mrs. Bacon attended church. She is mentally active and in good physical health. She finds enjoyment in reading and sewing, and last year made a handsome sofa pillow. During the summer she crocheted some fancy shawis and is for the greater part of the time busily engaged in work of this character. She has outlived all her children, Attorney Bacon being the last.—Middletown Press. town Press.

> HOME GARMENT MAKING. The Bulletin's Pattern Service.

LADIES' DRESSING SACK. Paris Pattern No. 2716 - All Scams Allowed.

This simple little dressing sack is semi-fitted and developed in light blue, pink or white Canton flannel. The wide turndown collar, front and edges of the turnback cuffs are bound with black satin ribbon, unless the jacket is in white, in which case the ribbon should be of some bright color. A pretty effect is gained by making the jacket of cream colored cashmere or challis, lining it with some light colored China silk and using bright colored ribbon for the binding.

The pattern is in eight sizes—32 to 46 inches, bust measure. For 36 bust the sack requires 4½ yards of material 28 inches wide, 3½ yards 27 inches wide, 2½ yards 35 inches wide as Illustrated, 3 yards 42 inches wide; as Illustrated, 3 yard of satin 29 inches wide.

Price of pattern, 10 cents.

Order through The Bulletin Company, Pattern Dept., Norwich, Conn.

Rode on First Train. William G. Mitchell, president of the Milford straw works, was a passenger on the first railroad train that ever ran from New York city to New Haven and he took this trial trip on Jan. 1, 1849—sixty-one years ago.

SCRATCHED SO SHE COULD NOT SLEEP

"I write to tell you how thankful I am for the wonderful Cuticura Remedies. My little niece had eczema for five years and when her mother died I took care of the child. It was all over her face and body, also on her head. She scratched so that she could not sleep nights. I used Cuticura Soap to wash her with and then applied Cuticura Ointment. I did not use quite half the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, together with Cuticura Resolvent, when you could see a change and they cured her nicely. Now she is eleven years old and has never been bothered with eczema since. My friends think it is just great the way the baby was cured by Cuticura. She was taken with the eczema when two years old. She was covered with hig sores and her mother had all the best doctors and tried all kinds of salves and medicines without effect until we used Cuticura Remedies. Mrs. H. Kiernan, 663 Quincy St., Brooklyn, N. Y. Sept. 27, 1909."

Vice Consul Henry Caldara of Ma-naga transmits an executive decree creating a new issue of paper currency in Nicaragua. It calls for the issue of $2,000,000 Nicaraguan currency in $50 bils. The vice consul is informed that as is customary in such cases an issue of a much larger amount has been ordered.

A short time ago tenders were invited for the construction of one seagoing steel towboat 149 feet long, 1,000 indicated horse power, and 14 knots speed, requored by the United States quartermaster's department in Manila. The tenders were opened on August 30, with the result that the Shanghai Dock and Engineering company was found to be the lowest tender. Their tender was consequently accepted.

Can Beat Congress Out. It is said that a congressional com-mittee will investigate the cost of liv-ing for the past 20 years. The cost can go up much faster than congress can investigate, however.—Houston

No Objections Heard.

Matt Henson has disappeared into the vasty deep of oblivion almost as completely as Mr. Davis of Arkansas has dropped out of sight in the intel-lectual deeps of the United States son-ate.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Senator Depew seems quite confident that he has a stock of stories sufficient to last through another term.—Philadelphia Ledger. Little Surprise for Him.

Ought to Settle Him.

After he has had a few more experi-ences in cooling his beels the Hon. Bil-liam Lorimer may begin to suspect that he is persona n. g. at the White house, —Chicago Tribune.
